SANTIAGO LIBRARY SYSTEM

The Santiago Library System (SLS) is a cooperative body consisting of all ten of the Public Libraries in Orange County. Each library has developed special collections serving the ethnic and language needs of the Orange County Community.

Established in 1966, the SLS System services the special library needs and higher level reference needs of over 2 million residents.

CALIFORNIA LIBRARY SERVICES ACT

The California Library Services Act was voted into law in 1978. This law funds the cooperative library system concept which makes possible special services to library patrons which would otherwise be outside the realm of any one member library's financial or functional capability. A major emphasis of the California Library Services Act is to provide the informational needs to communities which might otherwise remain undermet.

The Directory was supported in whole or in part by the California Department of Education, under the provisions of the California Library Service Act, administered by the California State Librarian. However the opinions expressed herein do not necessarily reflect the position or policy of the California Department of Education or the California State Library, and no official endorsement by the California Department of Education or the California State Library should be inferred.

Acknowledgements

The compiler would like to gratefully acknowledge the cooperation of the many individuals who took the time to respond to our request for information. Special thanks go out to Emilia Garcia and My-Hahn Tran for their tremendous efforts on behalf of the project.

ETHNIC ORANGE COUNTY

An Ethnic Resouces Directory
1987/88

INTRODUCTION

The present volume, the third edition of the ETHNIC ORANGE COUNTY Directory, once again confirms the Santiago Library System's commitment to serve the informational needs of diverse population groups in Orange County.

A directory of this type serves many functions. The growing number of minority groups and agencies identified each year in the ETHNIC ORANGE COUNTY Directory reflects the diverse nature of the County's population and identifies resources to help support their basic needs. This is a primary function of public libraries.

Within minority communities themselves, there have been tremendous changes as newly-settled members of these communities stabilize their lives and begin the complex process of acculturation. Inherent in this process is the need to decide which elements of the native culture to retain. This leads to the formation of grass-roots organizations and agencies to satisfy these needs. Another important function of this directory is to enhance intra- and inter-group communication. Hopefully, within the pages of this work members of minority groups will find the information needed to determine what culture-specific services are offered to them, by whom, and where they may be found. Conversely, members of mainstream society will find here information about services to minorities, as well as available sources of educational, cultural and social information.

It is the hope of the Santiago Library System that the ETHNIC ORANGE COUNTY Directory will assist libraries and other agencies in their efforts to provide current referral service to local groups and agencies serving minority populations.

THE DIRECTORY

The scope of the Directory is limited to the four largest minority groups: Asian Americans, Blacks, Hispanics, and Native Americans. The current focusing of attention on each of these four groups by researchers, planners, and service providers is due primarily to their greater need for services and support.

The Third Edition of the ETHNIC ORANGE COUNTY Directory includes one hundred and two (102) respondents to our questionnaire, which was mailed to over 190 different groups identified through other sources as serving the needs of Orange County. Included are national and regional agencies which serve the cultural, educational, social, political and economic needs of discrete minority communities, and which are located within County lines. Excluded are profit-seeking, commerical ventures, such as restaurants, which also cater to these communities. In section VII of this directory we list information about groups invited for inclusion, but which did not respond by our stated deadlines.

Individual Directory entries will provide the following information for each agency/organization listed whenever obtainable:

1. Organization/Agency Name
2. Address
3. Telephone
4. Contact Person
5. Description of Organization/Agency
6. Areas of County Served
7. Numbers Served/Number of Members
8. Fees for Services/Dues for Membership
9. Languages Other Than English Available
10. Year Founded
11. Funding Source(s)
12. Chief Officer and Title
13. Publications Available

For easy reference, the following indexes are also provided:

1. Alphabetic list of contact people and phone numbers
2. Alphabetic list of languages other than English available
3. Alphabetic list of services by type

Future editions will continue to expand the number of entries by including all eligible organizations that respond. The compiler will be grateful for information about such agencies or groups. Please forward to: ETHNIC ORANGE COUNTY Directory c/o Santiago Library System, 431 City Drive South, Orange, California 92668 (714) 634-7137. Thank You.
